

The Logan County Area Safety Council Annual Awards Banquet will be held on March 20, 2007 at 7:30 a.m. with a presentation on Common Compliance Failures and OSHA Hot Topics following the award presentation.

The banquet is an awards ceremony recognizing companies and their excellence in safety. Awards are based on the filing of your semi-annual report and the information provided on it.

Awards are:

100%: A company or companies that work the entire year without a lost time injury or illness.

Group: Companies with the lowest incident rate in each group.

Achievement: Companies that decrease their incident rate by at least 25%.

Special: A company or companies with the highest number of consecutive days without an injury.
