

Blessed with an abundance of natural beauty.

One of the most scenic areas in Logan County, Zanesfield, is the county's hidden treasure. Access to Zanesfield is provided by just three county roads, making it a quiet, quaint village of less than 300 people. Zanesfield is full of history, named after Issac Zane, who was captured by a Wyandot Indian tribe in 1762. Today, bicyclists looking for a challenge come here to test their stamina against Zanesfield's rolling hills. Motorcycle riders and Sunday drivers also enjoy the views, with the heavily wooded terrain being especially beautiful in autumn.
